Emotions. Feel. To live. Aristotle said that “there is nothing in the mind that has not first passed through the senses”. Isn't it actually what we pursue in every single thing we do in this life? If there is one place where all this happens, it is in our homes, in our refuges.

That is why people are now talking a lot about sensorial emotional interior design. A way of understanding spaces beyond the distributions, materials, colours or decorative elements that we are going to place. Spaces adapted to psychology and human emotions, looking for a connection between emotional states and interior architecture.

To catch the emotions and represent them in some way in our home, it is not a style or an aesthetic movement; it is only a starting point for reflection on how we are and how our environment should be in order to provide us with the well-being we need.

And it is in the bathroom that this perspective acquires its maximum expression. Spaces that, in general, are reduced and where, in most cases, we find ourselves alone, aspects such as the placement of the furniture, the colours, the textures... and the way in which all of this is connected, can make us feel good or bad.

In this new edition of WHAT'S NEW magazine with our Essentials collections, we present a new collection, Blanca. A contemporary design with a warm touch to create cosy spaces, for pleasant bathrooms where calm and positivity prevail.

We continue to evolve our CARMEN collection with a new high quality melamine finish and the possibility of laminate worktops combined with the furniture.

And, as always, we are focused on improving our customer service. Is there anything more emotional than empathising with people?

INTERVIEW

Deca Estudio arquitectura

A UNIQUE STYLE, YOURS

“In addition to quality and price, Avila Dos offers us close personal proximity”.

Clara and Elena, founders of DECA Arquitectura & Diseño, a studio located in Leioa. Their driving force is a passion for design, a desire to work and an undeniable determination to continue growing. All this is what can be appreciated in each of the projects they sign, but if there is something else, that “something else” that is also appreciated but not so often mentioned, it is their know-how and their savoir-faire. They are women, elegant, resolute and tremendously friendly.

READ THE COMPLETE INTERVIEW AT WWW.AVILADOS.COM

What is the origin of DECA ESTUDIO?

We met working in another studio. After finishing our phase there, and considering the connection we had both on a professional and personal level, we decided to try our luck on our own, and here we are seven years later!

How would you define your style?

For us, functionality is very important. Once we have solved the project on a more technical level, we start to define the style always based on the client’s preferences. And that is something we like to emphasise. We use our knowledge as interior designers and architects to develop the client’s idea.

Is interior design a luxury?

“We are Clara and Elena, and together we form the Deca tandem. From our taste for simplicity and naturalness we face each project, designing spaces to be lived. we like to listen and understand what our clients need and want”.

YES and NO! Let me explain. Having a space totally thought and designed for you is a luxury. Now, if you have a home that you want to renovate, hiring the services of an interior design or architecture studio is the best option to get the most out of your home, as well as to save costs, time and a lot of worries. More and more people are becoming aware of the importance of investing in interior design, and those who were not aware of the importance of investing in interior design, are now! They were after confinement.

What is your home like?

For both of us it is very important to have a spacious, comfortable and cozy living-dining room, space to share with family and friends, so in both houses this space has great weight. Natural materials such as wood, rattan or jute can not be missing throughout the living and plants!

lots of plants! For the rest, Clara has a more “pure” line of design, with elements that speak for themselves, as opposed to Elena’s eclecticism, with books and pictures everywhere.

How do you see yourselves in 10 years?

What a complex question! We are more about living in the present than thinking about the future, but we have no doubt that we will continue to enjoy our work as we have done so far.

ABOUT THE BATHROOM

What do you think is the perfect bathroom space?

A good layout is essential as a starting point, which satisfies the needs of each client. Once the floor plan is resolved, the choice of coverings and lighting will be key to achieve a space that provides comfort and relaxation.

It is also very important to choose quality brands when selecting the rest of the bathroom elements, faucets, bathroom furniture, screens shower, etc. That way we will avoid many problems in the future.

What is the most interesting thing for an interior designer when it comes to bathrooms?

In Deca Estudio we understand the bathroom as a place to relax and disconnect from the routine. That’s why we especially like to design this space, always looking for new aesthetic and technical solutions.

To try to optimize the bathroom space we have several tricks. The vanity unit is the undisputed protagonist of our bathroom, so it is important to define it before deciding the rest of the elements.

We opt for suspended furniture with drawers with storage, transparent screens, shower tray flush with the floor or recessed cistern.

ABOUT AVILA DOS

What values do you find in the AVILA DOS brand?

It is a brand we have trusted for years, with a great offer and good quality/price ratio. The treatment is professional but without losing the closeness at the time of making any consultation, either with their commercial area (Miren) or with the factory (Rosa).

What about their products?

They have a wide range of products and many options that allow you to create the furniture you have in mind. Sizes of the sink, number of drawers, type of handle, finishes ...

Although we have worked with different collections, the one we have placed the most because of its versatility is undoubtedly the Carmen serie. We also like the Advance System collection because it gives us the option to completely customize the furniture.

Can you tell us about any particular project in which you have used Ávila Dos furniture?

We can highlight the bathroom suite (photo 3). We were looking for elegance and timelessness. With stone-like finishes on walls and floor, we decided to combine it with a porcelain imitation wood in the shower area and the sink cabinet from the Carmen serie. In this case we opted for two modules of 70 cm each, so that each member of the couple would have independent storage. As for the countertop, we chose to place one with a thickened skirt to visually balance the overall length of the cabinet.

ESSENTIALS COLLECTIONS

Warm and welcoming bathroom design for the 21st century

What are we looking for in bathroom furniture today? Or, better still, what do we want our bathroom to be like? Undoubtedly, a space that used to be functional and auxiliary and that has now become a small sanctuary in which we seek to be comfortable, relaxed and looking for the best version of ourselves.

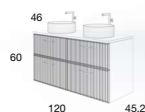

In our home, spaces have an increasing impact on how we feel, an idea inspired by the emotional architecture of Mathias Goeritz. That this is so is an undeniable fact.

Our homes tell our story. And the bathroom, the most intimate part of it. At a time when everything is accelerating and dehumanising, the BLANCA COLLECTION is born with a clear vocation to offer a cosy, warm bathroom style that envelops and builds a space of wellbeing in which the people who use it feel comfortable and happy.

A modern design with a certain vintage inspiration but with a versatile personality so that everyone can find the formula that best suits their style.
